BIBS

A bib will be given out after your attendance to the media briefing. The bib must be worn to have access to the platforms reserved for the start podium ceremony on march 17 in Grândola and the finish podium ceremony on march 22 in Loulé. The bib must also be worn at all times while media are on the track. The bibs require a €50 deposit (paid in cash at the media center), which will be refunded upon return of the bib.

MEDIA VEHICLES

Media vehicles must display the official identification stickers provided by the organizer. Media representatives may be required to present relevant documents, such as a valid driver's licence and vehicle registration papers, upon request.

GENERAL BEHAVIOR OF THE MEDIA

1. In accordance with the applicable regulations, no accredited person under these media rules may, under any circumstances, provide assistance to a competitor before, during, or after the race. Prohibited assistance includes - but is not limited to - sharing any route-related information or communication not officially provided by the rally organizers to the teams; transporting or supplying parts, fuel, or equipment on behalf of a team; or any other actions that may provide an unfair sporting advantage to a competitor.
2. Media personnel are strictly prohibited from touching any competing vehicle or assisting competitors in any form, including carrying items for them or providing access to any devices such as computers, tablets, or smartphones.
3. Violations of these rules may result not only in the withdrawal of media accreditation but could also lead to the disqualification of the competitor involved.
4. All media representatives must conduct themselves respectfully towards authorities, local residents, competitors, officials, fellow media members, sponsors, and all stakeholders involved in the event. Any breach of this conduct may result in the loss of media accreditation.
